Provisions Are Weak with Lower Hog Prices.

Hog receipts were light yesterday but fairly good for a Monday, and after the peanuts, per ib., jumbo, Sc; rousted, 16%; Chicago, Aug. 31.—Wheat ruled weak, peanuts, per ib., jumbo, Sc; rousted, 16%; closing at a loss of %6% for September and of 15c for December. Corn was final prices being hic lower for September and a shade lower for December.

Foreign news, increased receipts, increased visible supply and favorable weather were the hearish factors in wheat. Selling became general during the early part of the session, carrying the price of September down from the opening at 89-5200 to 80 kg, with December off he. The demand improved cember off tie. The demand improved later the buying being mostly by commission houses and a rally to 80% for September and 81% for December followed. The advance did not hold, however, profit taking cutsing a break in the nearer mouth to 25%, the close being at 18 gc; skinned, 20 lbs, and over, 18 gc. 18 lbs, 13c; 18-20 lb, 12 gc; skinned, 18-20 lb, 12 gc; skinned, 20 lbs, and over, 18 gc. 18 lbs, 13 gc; skinned, 20 lbs, and over, 18 gc. 18 lbs, 18 nearer month to 19 c, the close being at a loss of $20 c at $05,850 c, with December back to $15,850 c, a net loss of bc. The visible supply showed an increase of nearly half a million bushels. Primary receipts were 1,072,09 bushels. Minneapolis and Duluth reported receipts of 584 cars, which with local receipts of 137 cars—six of contract grade—made a total for the three ipoints of 701 cars, against 750 cars last week and a Local receipts were 425 cars with 67 of contract grade. The oats market ruled steady, with free buying by local traders and some commission houses counteracting the ef-fect of of scattered selling. Soptember fect of of scattered seiling Soptember closed it lower at 36% with December a shade lower at 36% with December a shade lower at 36%.

Scattered liquidations and lower prices at the yards caused a weaker tone in provisions. Trade was off a little but without feature. Brokers and packers were credited with doing the seiling, which resulted in a decline of 27% in September pork at 12.22%; of 2% in lard at 38.47%, and of 17% in ribs at 47.42%. Estimated receipts for tomorrow: Wheat, 125 cars; corn, 575 cars; oats, 265 cars; logs, 15.000 head.

Dr. Thacher's Liver and Blood Syrup

When any member of the family begins to droop, loses appeals and shows signs of taking strength, you know that it means some discrete of the liver, kidneys, stamach, bowels or blood, and that a long, serious filmens, such suffering sub-big doctors bills are agre to failure unless come preventive is used at once.

Dr. Thanker's Laver and Siccet Syrup—"The Road to Good Health"—Is the greatest safiguard you can provide for the health of your family. It combines those quelities sought in an ideal family medicine—a pure liver regulator, the bust kidney medicine, a perfect blood purifies and a powerful tonic. It does not help one ergan at the expense of another, but regulates and attengthens all and causes them to not in perfect harveaux.

Physicians recommend and prescribe it for disorders of the liver, constipation, bilinesses, indigestion, kidney trouble, dropsy, catarsa, sheumatism, blood and skin diseases; while thousands at families have no other doctor.

MR LEE DEAN. Antioch, I. T., says in a recent latter:

"This is to let you know that we have used your Liver and Blood Syrup in our family for the past two years and it is our only medicine and doctor."

W. S. GRAY, an aged citizen of Grayson, Ala., writes:

"I find that your medicine is pure, guild, efficacious and inexpensive. It is good for the children, excellent for beginness men. It stands ahead of all the medicine made and is the cheapest that one can buy."

MES. F. A. SPELLMAN, Anderson. S. C., says:

There successfully used Dr. Thacher's Liver and Blood Strong and So not healthle to recommend it as a valuable family medicine. Ewould not tibe to be without it in the house."

Gentle and thorough in its actions, it is as good for the children as it is for grown folks. Just a small dose each day when you don't feel well will cleanse your system of all impurities, fortify it against disease and fill you with a vim and vigor before unknown.
